

Prominent ERISA Attorney Joins Parker, Brown, Macaulay & Sheerin, P.C.

We are excited to announce that Kimberly McCarthy has joined our firm as partner. With an exceptional track record in ERISA, broad-based retirement and health & welfare benefits, executive compensation, and related tax and regulatory law, Kimberly McCarthy brings unparalleled expertise and transformative leadership to our firm.

Kim is a dynamic and results-oriented leader with extensive experience in organizational restructuring, employee benefits, corporate law, regulatory compliance, and tax strategy. Over a remarkable career, she has built and led high-performing client service teams, spearheaded innovative operational strategies, and developed sustainable revenue streams.

Previously, Kim headed the employee benefits, tax, and regulatory compliance practices at a prominent Rhode Island law firm, where they transformed client services, enhanced workplace culture, and created several high-revenue practice areas. Recognized as the youngest partner in the firm's history, she has also been lauded as a "Best Lawyer" in Compliance Law, Tax Law, and Governance Law, and was named Best Tax Attorney in Rhode Island.

A graduate of Brown University (magna cum laude), Boston College Law School (magna cum laude), and with an LL.M. in Taxation from Boston University School of Law, Kim combines legal excellence with a strategic and client-focused approach.

She has also demonstrated a deep commitment to community impact, serving as Chair of Children's Friend & Service and as a Founder of Intergenerational Housing Rhode Island, and has been recognized in PBN's initial class of "40 Under Forty" and in the 2024 class of "Leaders & Achievers".

We are confident that Kim's exceptional talents will further enhance our commitment to delivering the counsel, advice, and service for our clients.

Please join us in welcoming Kim to Parker Brown Macaulay & Sheerin, P.C.! You can reach Kim by email at kmccarthy@parkerbrown.com or by phone at (617) 399-0440.

Parker Brown Macaulay & Sheerin, P.C. concentrates exclusively in employee benefits law. With more than 60 years of combined employee benefits experience, our lawyers provide innovative, practical solutions to legal and business problems involving ERISA, employee benefits, executive compensation, and regulatory compliance. We navigate the complicated rules that govern employee benefits for clients from small, family-owned enterprises to large multinational corporations and major charitable institutions, and their executives, owners, and leaders. As a specialty firm, we offer personal attention from senior legal counsel and, though efficient use of time and technology, at reasonable rates.
